

Letter from Mrs. C.I. Comfort to Alexander Graham Bell, August 26, 1901

Newport, R. I. August 26th, 1901. Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, Baddeck, Nova Scotia, Canada. Dear Mr. Bell:—

I have to acknowledge receipt of your favor in regard to our afflicted daughter, and we united in sincerely thanking you for your present as well as past interest you have taken in her welfare, and assure you we are grateful to you. Your letter has already done considerable good for we at once handed to X it to Mae to read and since that time she is applying herself more closely to reading—which we are sorry to say she has never been so fond of as we desired. She will again enter the R.I. school for the deaf in Providence (where she has been attending for past seven years.)

Wishing you well at all the times and wherever you may be, I remain, yours

Yours sincerely, Mrs. C. I. Comfort.
